BACK FOR A SECOND YEAR

BACK AGAIN FOR ANOTHER YEAR SUPPORTING LOCAL

IT'S Show Time AT LAKE KARĀPIRO

The wait is over, Waipa Home & Leisure Show is back again for its second year.

Returning with favourite exhibitors from last year's first ever Waipa Home & Leisure Show, along with lots of new first-time exhibitors for Waipa's second show.

The Good Local Media team, publishers of your weekly local community newspapers, the Cambridge News, Te Awamutu News, King Country News, and the monthly Waikato Business News is buzzing with excitement after months of preparations.

Advertising and Commercial Director Janine Davy said it is great to see how excited our exhibitors and local businesses are to attend the show and the effort they are putting into their exhibits to wow locals in Waipa and surrounding areas.

"Huis Joinery, back for another year, decided to extend their stand, so that they could hang a barn door between their kitchen and laundry area. One barn door turned into two when they decided to give one barn door away at the show. To visit their site and enter, head on upstairs. This is only one example of what the shows exhibitors are up to."

"There is something for every member of the family no matter your age, your budget or if you just want a great morning or afternoon out at an affordable price with families or friends in a relaxed and friendly environment."

With an adult entry price of $5, children under 12 free, plenty of free accessible parking, and an outdoor playground on site, you can't get a more affordable outing. Bring your own bag for those show goodies or just come out and be inspired or grab a bite to eat.

We've got 75 exhibits covering the home, building and renovation specialists, custom kitchens, laundry, and joinery, carpeting and flooring, cladding, double glazing, garage solutions, solar panels and lighting, heat pumps and air conditioning, magnetic windows, fly screens, security doors, artificial lawns and turf, and professional painters.

For your health and wellbeing, which proved to be very popular with show visitors last year, we have sports products to help heal and support your performance, bone and body scanning, medical light therapy, hearing health and aids, orthotics, and bee wax healing products.

For the outdoors, pools, outdoor shade systems, lawn care services, ride on mini tractors and mowers, green waste, and landscaping solutions, rustic outdoor furniture, and a selection of trees.

For inside your home, beds and bedroom furniture, curtaining & soft furnishing, interior design services, tiles and wall paper inspiration, home fragrance and candles, kitchen merchandise, beds and bedroom furniture.

For foodies, award winning chocolate bars, bon bons, confectionary and drinking chocolate, artisan gouda cheese, Indian spice blends, turmeric and chai coffee, chai masala and chai honey.

Always a favourite, organic gin and vodka (with fruit mixes). St Kilda Café & Bistro's skilled team are kindly running our on site café, along with a selection of local food trucks.

Plus we also have E Bikes, fashions - shoes, clothing and handbags, family photography, cleaning experts, funeral planning, retirement care options and facilities, real estate - rural, residential and lifestyle, investment and insurance advice and a political party.

Turn to page 2 for a full exhibitors list.

While out at the show make some time to talk to your local media and events team, tell us what you enjoyed seeing, and tell us what types of exhibitors you would like to see in the future.

Come and support your local businesses who have pulled out all the stops to impress you and also the national businesses who have travelled to see you so that you don't have to travel to the main centres around New Zealand to see them.

The Good Local Media team look forward to hosting you next weekend.
